Hi Marc and Jo,

Further to our conference this morning, this afternoon I received a call from the ATO confirming that it has received the RLF's tax exemption application.

The ATO rep noted that the ATO planned to approve all exemption applications other than the FBT (fringe benefits tax) exemption. He noted that only health service provider charities and public benevolent trusts can apply for FBT exemption. However, the ATO will approve the RLF's application for FBT rebate. We had applied for both in the ACNC application.

He said that the RLF should receive the ATO's confirmation in respect of the approval of the tax exemption application within the next 7-10 days.

Subsequent to the call from the ATO, I checked our file and the ACNC application and confirm that, as instructed, we did not apply for endorsement as a deductible gift recipient (DGR).

I have written to [REDACTED] at the ACNC seeking clarification whether they propose to provide us with any further correspondence in respect of the application/registration.

I will come back to you in respect of the balance of our discussion this morning:

- Dealing with the share sales by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]
- Balance of documents required to effect the restructure

Best regards
Adam
